European Citizens' Consultations 16 Recommendations

Group I - for this round of ECCs

Group II - for future rounds of ECCs

Until December 2018	Until May 2019		Until September 2019	Beyond 2019
Reporting	Process	Follow-up		Framing	Implementation		Reporting
<ul> <li>Member states and Commission should ensure reports provide detailed synthesis of consultations</li> </ul>	<ul> <li>Organisers of national consulta- tions should use momentum of EP elections to intensify discussions</li> </ul>	<ul> <li>European Council should be clear about timeframe for new EU leadership to follow up on reports</li> </ul>	<ul> <li>Civil society should keep political attention on the results</li> </ul>	► The purpose of the exercise and its connection to the European level should be made clear	<ul> <li>The transnational dimension of the consultations should be enhanced</li> </ul>	<ul> <li>There should be a good balance between a common format and diverse national practices</li> </ul>	<ul> <li>The synthesis of results should take place in public and involve independent voices</li> </ul>
<ul> <li>Member states and Commission should ensure all reports are public</li> </ul>	<ul> <li>Commission should invest more effort in promoting questionnaire</li> </ul>	<ul> <li>EP candidates should use the results in their election campaigns</li> </ul>	<ul> <li>Current Commis- sion should pass on the conclusions to the next Commission</li> </ul>	<ul> <li>Citizens should be informed of what the outcome of the process will be</li> </ul>	<ul> <li>Organisers should make use of existing models of citizens' participation</li> </ul>	<ul> <li>National discus- sions should include issues on the EU policy agenda</li> </ul>	<ul> <li>Another Citizens' Panel should be held</li> </ul>